

IELP Admission Policies and Procedures

A. International Students

To apply from outside of the US, we will need the following information and fees:

- Completed High Expectations' Application Form.
- US $250.00 for the Application/Registration fee.
- A bank statement for the last month, original and translated to English, from your account or your sponsor/guardian's account, showing sufficient funds to pay all your personal expenses while studying in the US. For each month of classes, you must provide proof of US $1,550 for your expenses and $550 for the expenses of each dependent.

After your completed application is received:

- Please maintain a valid email account during the entire application process.
- Once accepted, students will receive an email from market@highexpectationsusa.com with an I-20 Form and Letter of Acceptance. This I-20 Form is the immigration document that you will need to apply for a student visa at your local U.S. Embassy or Consulate.
- Submit SEVIS Fee: US$350.00 for SEVP by debit or credit card.
- Schedule your interview at your local U.S. Embassy or Consulate.
- Before the start of class, attend orientation and pay the full amount of the tuition and book/material fees. Books are mandatory. Books fees are approximately $50 per session.

IELP Admission Policies and Procedures

B. Transfer Students

To transfer to High Expectations from another SEVP-certified institution, we will need the following information and fees:

- Completed High Expectations' Application Form.
- US $250.00 for the Application/Registration fee.
- A bank statement for the last month, original and translated to English, from your account or your sponsor/guardian's account, showing sufficient funds to pay all your personal expenses while studying in the US. For each month of classes, you must provide proof of US $1,550 for your expenses and $550 for the expenses of each dependent.

Transfer students must also:

- Provide your current institution with a Letter of Acceptance from High Expectations.
- Complete the F-1 Student Transfer Information Form.
- Maintain status by attending classes at your current institution until the transfer release date is established by the DSO.
- Before the start of class, attend orientation and pay the full amount of the tuition and book/material fees. Books are mandatory. Books fees are approximately $50 per session.

IELP Admission Policies and Procedures

C. Students Seeking Change of Status

To apply for a change of status from tourist (B1/B2) to student (F1) in the US, we will need the following documents:

- Completed High Expectations' Application Form.
- US $250.00 for the Application/Registration fee.
- Copy of your passport and the passports of your dependents.
- Copy of your Visa and the Visas of your dependents, if applicable.
- Copy of your Form I-94 and the Form I-94 of your dependents.
- A bank statement for the last month, original and translated to English, from your account or your sponsor/guardian's account, showing sufficient funds to pay all your personal expenses while studying in the US. For each month of classes, you must provide proof of US $1,550 for your expenses and $550 for the expenses of each dependent. Note: If your sponsor is in the US, you must submit a Form I-134 completed by your sponsor.
- Marriage certificate and/or birth certificate of your children, original and translated to English (if applicable).
- Change of Status Request Letter (in English).
- Change of Status fees:
 - Change of Status Applications are processed by third-party agencies.
 - USCIS:
 - Form I-901 SEVIS Fee: US $350.00
 - Form I-539 fee: US $370.00 payable to USCIS (money order only)
 - Biometric Fee: US $85.00 payable to USCIS (money order for each person included)
- Before the start of class, attend orientation and pay the full amount of the tuition and book/material fees. Books are mandatory. Books fees are approximately $50 per session.

